My dear Sir:-

I am sending you herewith a card for our meeting of March 16th, and I hope you will find it convenient to meet with us on that occasion.

I understand that the subject of this meeting is in line with your collection, and we will be most glad if you can show us some of your interesting things on that occasion.

With kind regards, believe me,

Very truly yours,

Director.

Dear Mr. Miller:-

Might I ask /ou if /ou will kindl/ send me a list of the pieces, that /ou exhibited here on Saturda/ ? I intended making a note of them, but with the number of other things on m/ mind I forgot it. We issue a bulletin after each meeting giving the proceedings of the meeting also the list of exhibits, and I would like ver/ much to add to this list the most interesting pieces that /ou had here.

With kind regards, believe me,

Ver/ sincerel/ /ours,

Dear Sir:

My exhibits at the meeting of the American Numismatic Society were as follows:

1. Granby Copper, broad-axe type without date; extremely fine.
2. A similar piece dated 1739 in fair condition.
3. Uncirculated Connecticut Copper 1785. Crosby 4-A.
4. Two Oak tree Shillings.

Very truly yours

Henry C. Miller

Dear Mr. Miller:-

I enclose herewith a card for the next meeting of the Society, March 15th. As you will see, the subject for discussion and illustration is rather in your line, and we would be most glad if you could find it convenient to attend and possibly bring a few of your good things with you.

With kindest regards, believe me,

Very sincerely yours,

Director.
